

Journal of Bioscience and Bioengineering (JBB) has moved to Editorial Manager® (EM), Elsevier's online submission and peer review tracking system. From February 19, 2020, submissions to the journal are processed via EM.

You can access the new EM site for Journal of Bioscience and Bioengineering here:

<https://www.editorialmanager.com/JBIOSC>

When you log into the system for the first time you will need to create a password.

Your EM credentials are not linked to your Elsevier Profile. The username/password associated with your Elsevier Profile remain unchanged.
